

Far Away O'er The Deep Blue Sea

Words by
LESLIE I. WILLIAMSON

Music by
LEO FRIEDMAN

NORTH AMERICAN
MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.
119 No. Clark St. Chicago, Ill.

FAR AWAY OER THE DEEP BLUE SEA

Words by
LESLIE I. WILLIAMSON

Music by
LEO FRIEDMAN

March Time

Our coun - try has called to the col - ors, The boys of nine - teen With should - ers e - rect, with eyes straight a-head, We're off for a long sev'n-teen, — A fi - ner bod - y of bright young men, Has nev - er jour - ney, — But our hearts are staunch and our spir - its good, To fight this fight for yet been seen, Health - y and strong and quick - ly to grasp, The hu - man-i - ty, Great is the sa - cri - fice we have made, Leav - art of mod - ern war - fare, — For a cause most no - ble, Our ing be - hind lifes treas - ures, — To do our best for the coun-try dear They will fight to do their U. S. A. Caus-ing war to cease for ev-er share.

CHORUS

So its up to you Un-cle Sam to send us, A - cross the sea to fight for lib-er - ty,

For glo-ry and hon-or, Sweet-hearts and moth-ers, Of our coun-try most no - ble and free, We're ea - ger to get to the fir - ing line, With the Stars and Stripes in bat-tle, So its up to you

Un-cle Sam to send us, Fur a - way o'er the deep blue sea.

Carl V. Harris
45 Rockwell St
Dorchester, Mass.

Carl V. Harris

Carl V. Harris

Carl